

Chris Rasmussen: A native of New York City, I spent much of my youth in the South--Florida, Georgia, Memphis. After graduating from the University of Arizona I lived in New York City for a few years, then moved to the San Francisco Bay Area, working in systems development for an insurance company for 18 years. That was followed by 10 years in Colorado as project lead on business application development for a large telecom firm. I then owned & operated a shipping & logistics business in Colorado before returning to the Bay Area in 2007.

Now residents of Mare Island, my wife Karen and I have been married for 31 years; we have one daughter, Robin. I enjoy photography, backyard astronomy and the motorcycle, and harbor many other interests.
